

International UN Peacekeepers' Day was established in 2002, to pay tribute to all the men and women who have served and continue to serve in United Nations peacekeeping operations for their high level of professionalism, dedication and courage, and to honour the memory of those who have lost their lives in the cause of peace. UNMIS Juba commemorated May 29, UN Peacekeepers' Day with a series of events, which included a community outreach session and a mine risk awareness demonstration by UNMAS and the Bangladesh Contingent's Demining Company at Juba University, a formal UN flag raising ceremony by the Bangladesh Contingent and a friendly basketball match hosted by the Indian Force Reserve Company.
