

Agreement Between
The United Nations
And René Scholl concerning
My performance of a poem entitled “Peace Begins with Me”

This Agreement is made by and between René Scholl, a UN peacekeeping military observer with UNTSO (hereinafter “I” or “me”) and the United Nations, acting through the Department of Peace Operations (“DPO”), concerning my performance of a segment of a poem entitled “Peace Begins with Me” (“Agreement”).

Grant of Rights

Right to record, use footage of me, including my name, image, voice and likeness

I grant to the United Nations the right to record, and use footage of me, either photographs or video footage, including my name, image, voice or likeness, which footage was made during my performance of a segment of a poem, entitled “Peace Begins With Me”, which was recorded or filmed by UN officials on 10 February 2023 (the “Footage”) for the UN’s official purposes, including in support of UN peacekeeping operations, the International Day of UN Peacekeepers and the subsequent campaign to celebrate its 75th anniversary which includes posting the Footage, together with other UN footage of other individuals reading segments of the above poem, as combined by the UN in a video (“UN Video”), on UN websites, official accounts of UN social media, provided that any reproduction of the Footage shall not be distorted or otherwise substantially transformed in any way and shall not portray me in any defamatory or derogatory manner. I only give permission for the Footage to be used as was recorded while I was aware that recordings were being made. Specifically, and subject to the foregoing, the United Nations is hereby granted the right to reproduce and authorize the reproduction of the Footage by the United Nations or third parties engaged by or collaborating with the United Nations to reproduce the Footage, in whole or in part, for official purposes of the United Nations only. I grant the United Nations the right and permission to use my name and functional title to identify me in the Footage.

Right in my performance of the poem

I grant to the United Nations all rights in my performance of the Poem, in the above Footage, for the UN’s official purposes, including broadcasting of the UN Video with my performance of the Poem at United Nations Headquarters in New York in connection with the campaign “Peace Begins With Me” marking the 75th anniversary of the UN Peacekeeping and Peacekeepers Day, or otherwise.

License to use UN Video

The United Nations hereby grants to me a royalty-free, worldwide, limited, revocable and non-exclusive license to post the UN Video on my social media accounts and my website for non-commercial purposes to support UN peacekeeping operations, the International Day of UN Peacekeepers and the above-referenced campaign.

The grant of rights set forth in this Agreement is subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement. The grant of rights may be revoked should the United Nations use or attempt to use such rights in any manner inconsistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement. The United Nations acknowledges and agrees that, except in connection with the grant of rights expressly provided in this Agreement, the United Nations does not have a right or my permission to alter, distort, create any illusionary effect, or use in any composite form, the Footage, my name, image, voice or likeness without first obtaining my written consent.

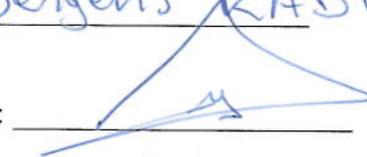

Release

Subject to the conditions set forth herein, I release the United Nations from any claims regarding the use of the Footage, my name, image, voice or likeness. I acknowledge and agree that the United Nations is not obligated to use any of the Footage that I have granted the right to use in this Agreement.

I represent that I am fully competent and authorized to enter into this Agreement and that I have done so knowingly and willfully.
